

HELD FOR BEATING HIS DYING WIFE

Brutal Husband Must Face Serious Charge After Serving Six Months.

Harry Hannis, of No. 51 Morris street, Jersey City, was held to await the action of the Grand Jury to-day in the First Criminal Court on a charge of atrocious assault and battery. He was also sentenced to prison for six months for neglect. The grand jury will be pressed as soon as he completes his term. He is charged in an ante-mortem statement by his wife with having cruelly beat and choked her while she was in a delicate condition. She died in the City Hospital, Jersey City, two days ago.

Several days ago the S. P. C. A. heard of shocking conditions in the Hannis home. They found the wife semi-conscious in bed. A baby had been born the day before. Four little children crowded beneath a pile of rags in a corner. There were not enough clothes between them to cover one. They were taken care of by the society and the mother removed to the hospital. She was told that she had but a few hours to live and she then made her ante-mortem statement. She died next day. She declared that her husband had shamefully mistreated her for years. She said he had struck her while she was helpless.

Dr. Nelson, who attended the woman, testified that the man Hannis had thrown her out of the house.

CAN'T SERVE PAPERS ON MISS GUERNSEY.

Doctor's Suit for Attending Her Late Father, Celebrated Physician, Is Adjourned.

Miss Florence Guernsey, daughter of the late Dr. Egbert Guernsey, was responsible for holding up the trial before senior Justice John Henry McCarthy in the City Court to-day, of the suit brought by Dr. Thomas E. Satterthwaite for professional services to Dr. Guernsey.

Dr. Guernsey was past eighty years of age when he died, closing a long and honorable career as a physician. He was active in women's clubs. The suit has excited the interest of the whole medical profession, and I said to be without precedent. In spite of the prominence of Miss Guernsey, when the case was called for trial E. V. Thornall, attorney for Dr. Satterthwaite, announced that he had been unable to serve papers on her, and at his request the trial was postponed until next Thursday.

Reunited After 31 Years.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 15.—Mrs. C. W. Clifton, of Daisford, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kimberly, of Dallas, Tex.; mother and daughter, after a separation of thirty-one years, met here yesterday. The latter was stolen from her home in West Virginia when five years old by rascals, from whom she was finally rescued.

COPS ON THE JOB WHEN CROOKS CAME

Capt. Pinkerton Had a Second Advance Tip on Plans of Burglars.

For the second time in a week Capt. Pinkerton, of the Bedford avenue station, Brooklyn, has been tipped off ahead of time and has had his men right on the job when burglars broke into a factory. This time it was at Henry Schide's metal plate works, No. 106 Alameda street. Although four detectives were hidden in the place when three young men broke in, one of the burglars got away.

The two who were caught were arraigned in the Lee Avenue Court to-day and held in $1,000 cash for further examination to-morrow. They are George Hietzel, twenty-two years old, of No. 1420 Metropolitan avenue, and Charles Connors, twenty-four, of No. 984 Myrtle avenue.

Just how he got the tip Capt. Pinkerton refuses to say. Last Saturday a man overheard two boys in a saloon planning to rob Daniel Carroll's mineral water shop at Keap and Hope streets, and took the news to the captain. Both young burglars were arrested at that time. Evidently a similar source of information came into play in the present case.

Detectives Fagan, Holland, Schamp and Coleman were hidden in the office of Schide's factory early to-day when the front door was burst in with a jimmy. Three young men entered and took precaution to roll a barrel against the door so that it would be held in place in case the patrolman on the beat should "try" it on his rounds. The burglars turned on pocket electric lanterns and two of them began to fumble about the safe in an amateurish sort of way with their jimmys. The other was prying at the cash drawer when the detectives popped out, just as they do in the third act of a melodrama. Before they had time to say the conventional "Hold in the name of the law" one of the burglars jumped through the rear window, carrying cash and all with him.

Schamp fired twice at the burglar as he slipped up the back fence, but failed to stop him. The others put up a stiff fight. The police say that they are members of the same gang as the two who were arrested on Saturday. They seem to balk a great deal about their burglary plans in public places.

JAIL BREAKERS BALK DOGS.

Negroes Wash Their Feet with Disinfectant and Leave No Trail.

DOUGLAS, Ga., March 15.—Douglas had a wholesale jail delivery Tuesday night. While the jailer, S. C. Brown, was away five negroes, one charged with murder, three with assault with intent to murder and one with a misdemeanor, sawed off the hinges of the door and walked out with no one to hinder.

Track dogs were on the scene within half an hour, but it was found that the escaped prisoners had washed their feet with the disinfectant left in the corridor and the dogs failed to follow the trail. Eastman Brown, colored, under a charge of assault with intent to murder, refused to go and is now the only prisoner in the jail.

SUPERVISORS ACT TO GIVE YONKERS RELIEF.

(Special to The Evening World.) YONKERS, N. Y., March 15.—The Board of Supervisors of Westchester County took action to-day to prevent the pollution of the Saw Mill River, which is one of the streams from which the city of Yonkers gets its drinking water, because of an epidemic of tonsillitis from which Yonkers has been suffering for weeks.

According to a report made to the board, the pigpens at the county almshouse at Eastview drain into the river, and it is the intention of the Supervisors to stop the pollution immediately. One of the latest victims of the epidemic is Mayor John H. Coyne, of Yonkers, who is confined to his home.
